Treasury Department,
BUREAU OF THE MINT,
Washington, D. C., Jany. 5th. 1881

Sir:

Replying to your inquiry of the 31st. ult. as to whether the five cent nickel pieces about to be coined will be distributed, as heretofore, at the expense of the Government, I have to request that you will furnish me copies of all orders or instructions in regard to the distribution of minor coins given the Superintendent of the Philadelphia Mint by the Director of the Mint since the passage of the Coinage Act of 1873, and copies of any orders, appearing upon your records, made by the Secretary of the Treasury prior to that date.

If directions have already been given covering the five cent nickel pieces, it is unnecessary to issue additional orders; but I am unable to find any record here of any order made by either the Secretary or the Director.

Respectfully,

Horatio C. Burchard

Director.
